We have already published, by telegraph that Colonel D. M. Nelson, who killed General James H. Cianton, a few days ago, gave himself up to the authorities at Knexville on Monday, and entered into a bend of $25,000 for his appearance at court to answer the charge against him. His bondamen are his father, Judge Thos. R Nelson, W. G. Brownlow, R. (

Tomeny is justly indebted to compisinant in the saum of $395 Bt, due for money paid in satisfying judgment rende, ed against said Tomeny and compisinant, as accommodation surely on said Tomeny's official bond, and that said Jas. M. Tomeny, Fannie A. Tomeny and Wm. Huntington are non-residents of the State of Tennesses, and that for these causes an attachment was used out of this court against the property of defendants, Jas. M. and Fannie A. Tomeny, and the same was issued, and has been returned by the sheriff, duly isvised on the property of defendants, Jas. M. and Fannie A. Tomeny, It is therefore ordered by the Clerk and Master. That they make their appearance herein, at the court-house of the Second thancery Court, in the city of Memphis, Tennesses, on or before the first Soniesse, on completinants' bill, or the same will be taken for confessed as to them, and set for hearing experie, and that a copy of this drifer be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Nemphis Argal. This 3d may of October, 1871.
